(collectively "Movants") hereby moves the Court for a new trial date. This is the first request for a new trial date from the Movants. The Parties previously stipulated to a new trial date [ECF No. 258], but that stipulation was necessitated by no actual trial date having been entered by the Court. That Stipulation merely identified the issue and recommended further action.

Nevada Service Employees Union, SEIU 1107 ("Union") and Luisa Blue

The Court set a trial date of October 2, 2023, in March of this year, to address Plaintiff Debbie Miller's discrimination claims. Luisa is a named defendant. She was the Trustee over the Union during the time relevant to Miller's claims. Miller has made specific assertions regarding Luisa's management of the Union as it relates to her claims. Luisa is therefore an important witness for Miller, for the Union, and for herself.

Luisa had a pre-scheduled and pre-paid event from mid-September 2023 to mid-October 2023 prior to the trial setting date. Maintaining the current October 2, 2023, trial date will result in unnecessary damage to Luisa and the Union. Luisa will be forced to choose between penalties for not appearing at trial or the financial loss and personal relationship losses associated with her existing plans.

The Union would likewise potentially be injured if Luisa is not a witness at trial. Ms. Miller essentially argues that she was discriminated against by Luisa and Deputy Trustee Martin Manteca who oversaw Union operations associated with Ms. Miller's claims.

In addition to Luisa's unavailability, witness Grace Vergara-Mactal is unavailable during the scheduled trial period. Like Luisa, Grace will be out of the country.

Luisa's role is also important to Ms. Miller's alter-ego argument involving the Service Employees International Union ("SEIU"). See ECF 256:5. Luisa's personal knowledge of her involvement with Local 1107 will therefore be an evidentiary subject specifically relevant to Ms. Miller's alter-ego allegation. 1 The Movants are informed that SEIU does not oppose this motion for a new 2 trial date. 3 The Movants are informed that Plaintiff Miller opposes this motion. The 4 undersigned and Miller's attorney exchanged emails about the matter and spoke on 5 the phone about the matter. The apparent issue is that Ms. Miller desires the matter 6 to proceed to trial because it has been outstanding for many years. It is improper to 7 allow Miller's personal frustration to serve as a catalyst of harm against Luisa, the 8 Union, and the other Defendants. 9 CONCLUSION 10 For the foregoing reasons, the Court is moved to set a new trial date. 11 DECLARATION 12 The undersigned hereby declares that he and Plaintiff's attorney met to 13 address the matter, were unable to agree to a resolution based upon client positions, 14 and that this Motion is necessary based upon current circumstances. 15 Dated this June 15, 2023. 16 CHRISTENSEN JAMES & MARTIN 17 18 By: /s/ Evan L.
